DEFINITION OF SPOUSE

The definitions provided are subject to change as a result of any amendments to the provincial pension acts and regulations respecting entitlement to death benefits.

ALBERTA “Pension Partner”

Persons are pension partners for the purposes of the Employment Pension Plans Act (Alberta) on any date on which one of the following applies:

- (a) they (i) are married to each other, and (ii) have not been living separate and apart from each other for a continuous period longer than 3 years;
- (b) if clause (a) does not apply, they have been living with each other in a marriage-like relationship (i) for a continuous period of at least 3 years preceding the date, or (ii) of some permanence if there is a child of the relationship by birth or adoption.

BRITISH COLUMBIA “Spouse”

Persons are spouses for the purpose of the Pension Benefits Standards Act (British Columbia) on any date on which one of the following applies:

- (a) they (i) are married to each other, and (ii) have not been living separate and apart from each other for a continuous period longer than 2 years;
- (b) they have been living with each other in a marriage-like relationship for a period of at least 2 years immediately preceding the date.

MANITOBA

“Spouse”

Spouse of a person means the individual who is married to that person

“Common-law Partner”

Common-law partner of a member or former member means (a) a person who, with the member or former member, registered a common-law relationship under section 13.1 of The Vital Statistics Act, or (b) a person who, not being married to the member or former member, cohabited with them in a conjugal relationship (i) for a period of at least 3 years, if either of them is married, or (ii) for a period of at least 1 year if neither of them is married.

NEW BRUNSWICK

“Spouse”

Spouse means either of 2 persons who (a) are married to each other, (b) are married to each other by a marriage that is voidable and has not been avoided by a declaration of nullity, or (c) have gone through a form of marriage with each other in good faith that is void and have cohabited within the preceding year

“Common-law Partner”

In the case of the death of a member or former member, a common-law partner is a person who, not being married to the member or former member, was cohabiting in a conjugal relationship with the member or former member at the time of death of the member or former member and was cohabiting in a conjugal relationship with the member or former member for a continuous period of at least 2 years immediately before the death of the member or former member.

NEWFOUNDLAND

“Spouse”

Spouse means, a person who (a) is married to the member or former member, (b) is married to the member or the former member by a marriage that is voidable and has not been voided by a judgement of nullity, or (c) has gone through a form of marriage with the member or former member, in good faith, that is void and is cohabiting or has cohabited with the member or former member within the preceding year.

“Cohabiting Partner”

Cohabiting partner means (a) in relation to a member or former member who has a spouse, means a person who is not the spouse of the member or former member who has cohabited continuously with the member or former member in a conjugal relationship for not less than 3 years, or (b) in relation to a member or former member who does not have a spouse, means a person who has cohabited continuously with the member or former member in a conjugal relationship for not less than 1 year, and is cohabiting or has cohabited with the member or former member within the preceding year.

NOVA SCOTIA “Spouse”

Spouse means either of 2 persons who (a) are married to each other, (b) are married to each other by a marriage that is voidable and has not been annulled by a declaration of nullity, (c) have gone through a form of marriage with each other, in good faith, that is void and are cohabiting or, where they have ceased to cohabit, have cohabited within the 12 period immediately preceding the date of entitlement, (d) are domestic partners within the meaning of Section 52 of the Vital Statistics Act, or (e) not being married to each other, are cohabiting in a conjugal relationship with each other, and have done so continuously for at least (i) 3 years, if either of them is married, or (ii) 1 year, if neither of them is married.

ONTARIO “Spouse”

Spouse means either of 2 persons who, (a) are married to each other, or (b) are not married to each other and are living together in a conjugal relationship, (i) continuously for a period of not less than 3 years, or (ii) in a relationship of some permanence, if they are the parents of a child as set out in section 4 of the Children's Law Reform Act.

If, on the date of death, a member, former member, or retired member has a spouse described in clause (a) of the definition of “spouse” in subsection 1 (1) of the Pension Benefits Act (Ontario) from whom the member, former member or retired member is living separate and apart, that spouse does not have an entitlement under section 48 (1) or (2) of the Pension Benefits Act (Ontario).

If, on the date of death, a member, former member or retired member has a spouse described in clause (b) of the definition of “spouse” in subsection 1 (1) of the Pension Benefits Act (Ontario) and a spouse described in clause (a) of that definition from whom the member, former member or retired member is living separate and apart, the spouse described in clause (b) of the definition has an entitlement under section 48 (1) or (2) of the Pension Benefits Act (Ontario).

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND – The definition of spouse will be determined in accordance with the provisions of the plan.

QUEBEC “Spouse”

The spouse of a member is the person who,

- (1) is married to or in a civil union with the member;
- (2) has been living in a conjugal relationship with a member who is neither married nor in a civil union, whether the person is of the opposite or the same sex, for a period of not less than 3 years, or for a period of not less than 1 year if,
 - at least 1 child is born, or to be born, of their union;
 - they have adopted, jointly, at least 1 child while living together in a conjugal relationship; or
 - one of them has adopted at least 1 child who is the child of the other, while living together in a conjugal relationship.

For the purposes of (2) above, the birth or adoption of a child prior to the period of conjugal relationship existing on the day as of which spousal status is established may qualify a person as a spouse.

Notwithstanding (1) above, a person who is legally separated from bed and board on the day as of which spousal status is established is not entitled to any benefit under this subdivision unless the person is the member's successor or was named in a notice sent by the member under section 89 of the Supplemental Pension Plans Act (Quebec).

SASKATCHEWAN “Spouse”

Spouse means, (a) a person who is married to a member or former member; or (b) if a member or former member is not married, a person with whom the member or former member is cohabiting as spouses at the relevant time and who has been cohabiting continuously with the member or former member as their spouse for at least 1 year prior to the relevant time.

Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (OSFI)

OSFI regulates and supervises private pension plans provided to employees whose employment falls under federal jurisdiction. Employment under federal jurisdiction includes employment in banking, telecommunications, and inter-provincial transportation. OSFI is also the regulator for pension plans established in respect of employment in the Yukon, the Northwest Territories and Nunavut.

“Survivor”

In relation to a member or former member means,

- a) if there is no person described in paragraph (b), the spouse of the member or former member at the time of the member's or former member's death, or
- b) a person who was the common-law partner of the member or former member at the time of the member's or former member's death.

“Spouse”

In relation to an individual, includes a person who is party to a void or, in Quebec, null marriage with the individual.

“Common-law Partner”

In relation to an individual, means a person who is cohabiting with the individual in a conjugal relationship, having so cohabited for a period of at least 1 year.
