

MANULIFE FINANCIAL TRAVEL INSURANCE

When travelling, cover up.

Make sure you're protected from the sun – and from unexpected medical costs.

When we travel, we hope for great weather and a safe trip. But we don't always get what we want. While we can't change the weather, we can do something that can help out in case of injury or illness while travelling.

Your group coverage or credit card may provide you with some emergency medical travel insurance. But is it enough to provide you with the emergency medical coverage you may need? Manulife Financial Travel Insurance can top up most types of coverage and help you minimize your out-of-pocket expenses.

Manulife Financial Travel Insurance Plans

Visitors to Canada

If you have family or friends planning to visit, they can be protected while they're here with a Single-Trip Plan. If you have parents or grandparents planning to visit on a Super Visa, it's mandatory that they be covered with a minimum of $100,000 in Canadian medical travel insurance.¹

Out-of-Province

Whether you're travelling to the U.S.A. for a business trip or travelling overseas, we have a few plans to choose from:

- Emergency Medical Insurance
- All-Inclusive Insurance

Both are available as a Single-Trip Plan or Multi-Trip Plan.

Remember to check your group or credit card travel insurance coverage. If it doesn't give you the protection you want, top up your travel insurance with an affordable plan from Manulife.*

*Contact your advisor to review your current policy to see if it permits Top-Ups. Conditions, limitations and exclusions apply. Please see the policy or contact your advisor for details.
