

2018/2019 Changes and Updates to Manulife Travel Insurance for Visitors to Canada.

Effective as of February 13, 2019

New Emergency Medical Benefit

If you are repatriated or evacuated, we will cover the extra cost of one-way economy class airfare via the most cost-effective itinerary, to return your travel companion home.

New exclusion to Travel Accident

Any medical condition you contract or suffer in a specific country, region, or city when a Government of Canada Travel Advisory, issued before your departure to that country, region, or city advises Canadians to avoid all or non-essential travel to that specific country, region or city. In this exclusion, "medical condition" is limited, related or due to the reason for the Travel Advisory.

Update to Emergency Medical Exclusions in the Policy

"We will not pay any expenses or benefits relating to:" has been updated to "We will not pay any expenses or benefits relating directly or indirectly to:"

Rates

No changes.

PLEASE NOTE:

Hardcopies of the Travel policies and applications are no longer printed. If you require hardcopies, they can be printed from the Manulife Travel insurance website.
